

GIFTED PROFESSIONAL & PARENTS' LIBRARY

The following books and resources are available for checkout to parents and district educational staff.

They will be housed at the Collister Elementary School library beginning November 15, 2009. Phone 854-4650 or visit the library.

This list will be updated as more titles become available.

# of Copies	Title	Author
4 copies	25 Ways to Love the Gifted (booklet)	SENG (Social & Emotional Needs of the Gifted)
	College Planning for Gifted Students	Sandra L. Berger
	Could Do Better	Harvey P Mandel, PH.D. and Sander I Marcus, Ph.D.
	Doing School How We Are Creating a Generation of Stressed Out, Materialistic and Miseducated Students	Denise Clark Pope
2 copies	Early Entrance to College	Michelle C Muratori
	Empowering Underachievers	Peter A Spevak, Ph.D. and Maryann Karinch
2 copies	Exceptionally Gifted Children Second Edition	Miraca U.M. Gross
	Gifted Kids' Survival Guide(Teens)	Judy Galfraith, M.A. and Jim Delisle, Ph.D.
	Girls and Young Women Leading the Way	F. Karnes and S. Bean
2 copies	Habits of Mind: Discovering &amp; Exploring	Arthur L Costa Y Bena Kallick
	If You Could See the Way I Think (booklet)	Alexandra Shires Golon
	Never Work Harder Than Your Students	Robyn R. Jackson
	Perfectionism - What's Bad About Being Too Good?	Miriam Adderholdt, Ph.D. and Jan Goldberg
2 copies	Social and Emotional Development of Gifted Children	Edited by Neihart, Reis, Robinson, Moon
	Why Bright Kids Get Poor Grades	Dr. Sylvia Rimm