

---

◆NEWS RELEASE◆

---

U.S. BANK DONATES $6,000 TO THE BOISE PUBLIC SCHOOLS EDUCATION FOUNDATION

Boise, ID—09/08/09— U.S. Bank expressed its commitment to excellence in education with a $6,000 donation to the Boise Public Schools Education Foundation to support the Young Writer’s Conference for the 2009-2010 school year.

“It is absolutely marvelous that U.S. Bank continued their financial support this year of the Boise School District’s Young Writers Conference,” said Jennifer Henderson, Executive Director, Boise Public Schools Education Foundation.

“Without their dollars many students could not afford to attend nor could the conference provide such renowned authors for students to learn the skills of writing. We would like to express a very special thank you to U.S. Bank for their dedication and support,” said Dr. Stephanie Youngerman, Supervisor of Language Arts for of the Boise School District, who coordinates the Young Writers Conference.

“U.S. Bank is an active community leader in supporting education, and we’re particularly pleased to provide funding to the Boise Public Schools Education Foundation for the Young Writers Conference,” said Lori Dizes, Senior Vice President for U.S. Bank. “We have supported the program for a number of years and are always awed by the innovative program.”

# #