

21ST CENTURY LEARNING @ NORTH LIBRARY MEDIA CENTER

Partnership for 21st Century Skills is an organization working with leaders in education, business, and government, right now, nationwide, to integrate specific skills into education so students will be successful and productive in a fast moving, technology and media rich world.

- Core Subjects Information/Communications Technology
- 21st Century Content areas Life Skills
- Critical Learning & Thinking 21st Century Assessments

Information and Media Literacy Skills

Library Technologies enable students to access, select, use, analyze, organize, evaluate, and communicate with 21st skills !

Online Databases

- eBooks
- Electronic citations
- Email
- Hotlinks
- Embedded features
- Audio casts

Online Library Catalog

- Self-directed searching
- Electronic lists
- Electronic holds
- Electronic reviews

Computer Applications

- Word
- Publisher
- Excel
- PowerPoint
- Access
- PhotoStory

Web Research

- Search engines
- Websites
- Access, inquire, think, evaluate, use responsibly

Library Research Strategies enable students to access, select, use, analyze, organize, evaluate, and communicate with 21st skills !

Big 6 Research

1. Define the task
2. Seek resources
3. Select and access resources
4. Assess and use information
5. Organize and present information
6. Evaluate the presentation

